

SHEEP FLASHCARDS

Side 1	Side 2
WORD	Definition

Instructions

STEP 1: Print this document.

STEP 2: Cut the flashcards as shown below.

STEP 3: Fold the cards in the middle and paste the blank side of the cards together, so the Side 1 and 2 remain on the outside.

fold

A fold is a small sheep pen.

sheepdog

A sheepdog is a dog that guards the sheep

shepherd

A shepherd is a person who guards, protects, and herds the sheep.

lamb

A lamb is a young sheep.

ram

A ram is a male sheep.

ewe

A ewe is a female sheep.

wool

The fluffy hair found on sheep is called wool.

graze

Sheep graze, meaning they are
eating fresh grass.

flock

A group of sheep is called a flock.

herd

To herd means to move a group of sheep.

hoof

A sheep's foot is called a hoof.

A sheep has four cloven hooves.

yearling

A yearling is a one-year old animal. This young ram is a yearling.

mutton

Sheep meat is known as mutton.

corral

A corral is a large fenced area to keep sheep in.

bleat

A sheep's baa is also known as a bleat. The lamb is bleating.

pasture

A pasture is a large grassy area on a farm. Sheep, horses, and cows can all graze in a pasture.

hay

Hay is dried green grass that sheep can eat.

straw

Straw is dried yellow grass that can be eaten or used as a soft bed.

grain

Feed made of seeds is called grain.